

BURNOUT IN THE MINISTRY – STRUCTURE OF COURSE

CHAPTER 1: THE EMOTIONAL HAZARDS OF THE MINISTRY	9
• Introduction	9
• Overview of research covering the last 50 years	11
• Prof Hart’s major empirical studies	13
○ The emotional hazards of ministry (1983-84)	14
▪ Financial	14
▪ Family	15
▪ Stress and burnout	15
▪ Role conflicts	15
▪ Seminary training	16
▪ Sexuality	17
▪ Internal (emotional) hazards	18
○ Burnout in Ministry (2000 - 2001)	19
○ Pastors in conflict (2000 - 2001)	20
• Six areas of critical concern	21
○ The inadequacy of the preparation of the “person” of the pastor for the work of ministry	21
○ Ministers have not been properly trained regarding the area of sexuality	22
○ Stress is an inherent part of pastoral ministry	22
○ A lack of instruction in a basic understanding of the major emotional systems	22
○ A failure on the part of the church to engender a respect for self-care in both parishioners and pastors	22
○ There has been a failure to provide pastors with an understanding of “systems theory”	23
• Concluding remarks	23
CHAPTER 2: MINISTRY BURNOUT - PREVENTION AND CURE	27
• Burnout is a reality	27

• Understanding burnout	30
• The differences between stress, depression and burnout	31
○ Stress	31
○ Depression	32
○ Burnout	33
• Differences between burnout and stress	34
• Who suffers from burnout?	34
• Preventing burnout	35
○ Recognizing the problem	35
○ A friend in time of need	36
○ Is burnout a sign of failure?	36
○ Should you seek professional help?	37
○ Personal coping	37
○ Three important areas of personal functioning	38
▪ Assertiveness	38
▪ Role conflicts	38
▪ Confusion about the difference between empathy and sympathy	39
❖ Sympathy	40
❖ Empathy	40
• Conclusion	41
• Twelve steps toward recovery from burnout	41
CHAPTER 3: WELLNESS, STRESS AND CRISIS	43
• Defining physical health	43
• The mechanisms that produce distress	46
• What kind of personalities are then most susceptible to stress?	48
○ What is Type A behavior like?	48
○ What is Type B behavior like?	49
• Stress induced syndromes	51
○ Burnout	51
○ Acute stress disorder	54

○ Post traumatic stress disorder (PTSD)	55
• Stress as a factor in other illnesses	56
• Crisis	57
○ What is a crisis?	57
▪ Relational crises	58
▪ Economic crises	58
▪ Physical crises	59
▪ Spiritual crises	59
• Christianity and the management of stress and crisis	59
○ Suggested steps by Norman Wright	63
○ The extended family	63
○ The church	63
○ Appropriate Scripture	63
○ Prayer	63
○ A continued relationship	63
• Summary	65

CHAPTER 4: THE CAUSES OF SECONDARY TRAUMATIZATION IN THE MINISTRY	66
A. Problems and pressure of the ministry	66
• The scope of the problem	66
• Intensity of the problems	66
• Five general areas of conflict in the lives of ministers/Christian workers	67
○ The crisis of authority	68
○ The crisis of identity	69
○ The crisis of priority	69
○ The crisis of integrity	71
○ The crisis of dependency	72
B. Role-specific pressures	73
• Pastorate	73
○ Impossible tasks	73

○ Mandate to succeed	73
○ Job insecurity	74
○ Unexpressed anger	74
○ Financial pressure	74
• Youth workers	75
○ Surrogate parent role	75
○ High energy output	75
○ Loss of privacy, dignity, and sanity	75
○ Poor pay, power, and prestige	75
○ Sexual seduction	75
• Music ministers	76
○ The creative personality	76
○ Subordinate role	76
○ Pressure to entertain	77
○ Financial insecurity	77
• The para-church minister	77
○ Fund raising	77
○ Loneliness	77
○ High turnover of personnel	78
C. Resistance to counseling	78
• Belief in the infallibility of ministers	78
• Fear of exposure as failure	78
• Fear of rejection	79
• Dealing with feelings	79

CHAPTER 5: COPING WITH COMPASSION FATIGUE AND SECONDARY

TRAUMATIC STRESS	81
• There is a cost to caring	82
• The role of unresolved trauma	83
• Counter transference	84

• The conspiracy of silence	86
• The role of compassion fatigue within other disciplines	87
• Compassion satisfaction	91
• Training of counselors	92
• Factors that can stimulate or prevent compassion fatigue	92
• Summary of important criteria for evaluating compassion fatigue	93
• Some concluding pastoral perspectives	97
CHAPTER 6: A PASTORAL APPROACH TOWARDS BURNOUT	98
• Approaching the burnout person	98
• Definition	98
• Spiritual directors	99
• Phases of the burnout process	99
• Typical symptoms	99
• Anxiety and burnout	99
• Type A and B	100
• Further important aspects	100
• The multi-system pressures on the professional	101
• How do you survive?	102
Bibliography	104
Appendix 1: Type A or Type B personality	108
Appendix 2: Difference between empathy and sympathy	109
Appendix 3: Burnout checklist	110
Appendix 4: Symptoms of burnout	112
Appendix 5: The Burns depression checklist	113
Appendix 6: Clergy burnout inventory	115
Appendix 7: The Burns anxiety inventory	119
Appendix 8: The impact of secondary traumatic stress	122