

TOXIC RELIGION - STRUCTURE OF COURSE

CHAPTER 1 INTRODUCTION AND DEFINING	1
• Background	1
• Definitions	3
○ Spiritual abuse and wounding	3
○ Spiritual addiction	4
○ When religion has become sick and God has become like a drug to some	5
CHAPTER 2 CONTRIBUTING FACTORS	10
• Factors that lays the base for a spiritually bullying system	10
• Factors that make people vulnerable for spiritual addiction	12
• People become drawn to a certain type of church	13
○ Unfinished business	13
○ Unanswered needs	14
CHAPTER 3 MATURE AGAINST IMMATURE LEADERSHIP	15
• Reasons why leaders display spiritually degrading behaviour	15
○ 'Spiritual heroes' sometimes co-dependant persons themselves	16
○ Broken leaders try to compensate for own pain	17
○ Two classical types of spiritual abusers	20
○ Characteristics of spiritually and emotionally immature (abusive) leaders	23
○ Fatal love	24
○ Characteristics of spiritually and emotionally mature leaders	24
CHAPTER 4 A HEALTHY VERSUS A DYSFUNCTIONAL SYSTEM	27
• Characteristics of a typical shame-based and dysfunctional families and spiritual families	27
○ Sick rules	28
• Characteristics of healthy families	29
○ Basic convictions and spiritual values	29
○ Interpersonal relationships	30
○ General family culture	30
• Typical characteristics, strategies and techniques of a spiritually destructive system	31
○ Emotional and spiritual incest	31

○ The abuse of exclusivity	32
○ Regulation and control rather than grace	32
○ A rigid black / white approach	33
○ Burdens are loaded onto people	33
○ People are rather used than served	33
○ Denial	34
○ By means of rules real pain is side-stepped	34
○ The role of isolation	35
○ There has been lost touch of people's inner emotions	35
○ Accountability not owed to anybody	35
● Typical characteristics of a spiritual healthy approach	35
● Similarities between a dysfunctional family system and a dysfunctional church system	37
○ Parallels between alcoholic homes on the one hand and dysfunctional Christian homes on the other hand	37
○ An unhealthy call on the authority of God and His Word	38
○ Sick rules lead to sick behaviour	39
CHAPTER 5 THE PROCESS OF ADDICTION AND WOUNDING	41
● Similarities between chemical addiction and religious addiction	41
● The phases as well as progressive character of the addiction process	41
○ Early stage	42
○ Middle phase (phase of loss of control)	43
○ Late stage	45
● The results of spiritual wounding and addiction	46
○ Distorted perceptions about God	46
○ Distorted perceptions about Christianity	46
○ Emotional and psychological handicap	47
○ Personal incompetence	48
○ Nightmares	49
○ Torn families	49
CHAPTER 6 THE PROCESS OF BREAKING AWAY	50
● The break from an addictive system	50
○ Four conditions	50
○ Typical problems after the break-away	51
● Areas that need attention during the healing process	52
○ Establish boundaries with reference to behaviour	53
○ Identify triggers or danger areas that can cause a fall back	53
○ Define behaviour that will possibly lead to a relapse	54

○ Use established thoughts or behaviour that reflect healthy viewpoints in order to replace dysfunctional thoughts	54
CHAPTER 7 GUIDELINES ON THE WAY TO HEALING	55
• A handy instrument of measuring	55
• The beginning of the process	55
○ The value of counselling	55
○ Denial	55
○ Healing will be a process	56
• Focus on a support group	56
○ The therapeutic value of a support group	56
○ Look for someone who can serve as sounding board	56
• Spiritual recovery	56
○ Distorted perceptions about Christianity and God	56
○ General attitudes and convictions arising from spiritual wounding	57
○ Learn not to overreact in situations of spiritual wounding in future	57
○ Initially join church anonymously	57
○ The importance of forgiveness	57
○ Learn to can trust Christians again	58
○ Healthy growth of faith	58
• Recovery of thought patterns	58
○ Guard against a victim mentality	58
○ Guard against overwhelming dark memories	58
○ Extreme thoughts must be re-programmed	59
○ Invalid conclusions must be corrected	59
○ A realistic view of the reality must be found	59
○ Empowerment of the positive	59
○ Ignoring the negative	59
○ To guard against mostly emotional thoughts	60
○ To guard against a preoccupation with 'I should' thoughts	60
○ To guard against the maintaining of a hyper-responsibility feeling	60
○ Focus on new information	60
• Social recovery	61
○ Focus on the family	61
○ Focus on new friends	61
○ Learn to again experience joy from normal things	61
• Physical recovery	61
○ Focus on the body	61
○ Challenges to the church as well as preventive steps for the future	62

• Conclusion	62
ADDENDUM A: THE INFLUENCE OF RELIGIOUS SHAME	64
ADDENDUM B: REMUDA RANCH SPIRITUAL INVENTORY	66
ADDENDUM C: TYPICAL PROFILE OF THE EMOTIONALLY WOUNDED DUE TO RELIGIOUS ADDICTION	75
ADDENDUM D: THE STORY OF SCOTT ALLEN	77
ADDENDUM E: CHARLES'S STORY	79
REFERENCES	